

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

¹ Major Blakiston having passed through the Royal Military Academy at Woolwich in 1802, he proceeded to India as a Cadet in the East India Company's Service, and was appointed to the Corps of Engineers on the Madras Establishment, being then on half-pay as a Lieutenant in H. M. Service. In 1806 he served in the campaign against the Marhattas, and was engaged in the battles of Assaye and Argaum, and at the sieges and assaults of Ahmednuggur and Gawilghur. At the suppression of the mutiny at Vellore in 1806 he directed the guns by which the gate was blown open. In 1810 he acted as Chief Engineer at the capture of the Island of Bourbon. Having been employed in reconnoitring the coast of the Isle of France previous to the arrival of the expedition, he was instrumental in discovering the spot where the descent was made; and, having been appointed to the charge of the Guides, he led the advance of the Army until the surrender of that Island. For his services on the above occasion he was nominated Extra Aide-de-Camp to the Commander-in-Chief, Sir Samuel Auchmuty, on the expedition to Java in 1811; and having been sent in advance with the Chief Engineer to fix on the point of landing, he was engaged in a serious affair on the coast in the boats of H. M. ships Berwick and Leda. On the landing of the Army he was engaged in the affairs of Weltevreden and Samarang, and at the siege and assault of the fortified position of Cornelis. In 1812, having attained the rank of Captain in the Corps of Madras Engineers, he returned on furlough to England. Shortly afterwards, having been placed on full pay in H. M. 97th Regt., he was appointed to a company in the 17th Portuguese Regt., with which he served in the Light Division of the Peninsular Army until the conclusion of the war; having been present at the battles of Vittoria, Nivelle, Nive, Orthez, and Toulouse, and in all the affairs in which the Light Division was engaged. At the siege of San Sebastian he volunteered as an Engineer, and while so engaged was severely wounded. For his services on this occasion he was promoted to a company in the 27th Regt.; in 1816 was placed on half-pay; and on the 23rd June 1843 he was brought on full pay of the 51st Regt., and retired by the sale of his commissions. He has received the War Medal with six Clasps; also the Indian War Medal.

2 Major Cooke served with the 43rd at Walcheren, in 1809. In June 1811 he joined the Light Division in the Peninsula, and was present at the siege and storming of Ciudad Rodrigo, and of Badajoz (wounded at the assault), actions of Castrejon and San Christoval, battle of Salamanca, actions of San Munoz and San Milan, battle of Vittoria (wounded), actions in the Pyrenees, siege of San Sebastian, the attack on the heights of Vera, battle of the Nivelle, battles of the Nive on the 9th, 10th, 11th, 12th, and 13th Dec., actions at Tarbes and Arcangues, battle of Toulouse, besides various affairs of less importance. On the 8th Jan. 1815, he was present at the attack on the American Lines before New Orleans. He served afterwards with the Army during the Occupation in France. He has received the War Medal with eight Clasps.

3 Lt.-Colonel Nevill served in the Peninsula with the 2nd Battalion of the 30th, from July 1810 to May 1813; also the campaign of 1814 in Holland, and that of 1815 in the Netherlands: he was present at the defence of Oadls, occupation of the lines of Torres Vedras, various minor actions when in pursuit of Massena, battle of Fuentes d'Onor, Siege of Ciudad Rodrigo, siege and storm of Badajoz (severely wounded in the head and leg when leading the ladder party in the Escalade of the St. Vincent Bastion), battle of Salamanca, capture of Madrid, siege of Burgos (severely wounded through the left shoulder in the storm of the first line of the castle, 4th Oct. 1813), bombardment of Antwerp, assault on Bergen-op-Zoom, battle of Waterloo, and capture of Paris: throughout all the above mentioned sieges he acted as an Assistant Engineer. In 1817-18 and '19 he served in the Mahratta war, from the battle of Mahidpore (as a volunteer) to the siege of Asseerghur; and in 1820 he was attached to the Nizam's Troops at the capture of a Predatory Force. After serving 23 years in India with the 30th and 18th Dragoons, and 36th and 63rd Regts., his health failed when in command of the left wing of the 63rd, in a very unhealthy climate. He has received the War Medal with four Clasps; also the India War Medal.

5 Captain M'Coy was present at the operations against the rebel natives of the Southern district of New Zealand, in the Horokwi Valley, including the skirmish on the 6th Aug. 1846. Also present in the action at Wanganui on the 19th July 1847.

7 Captain Hobson served with the 10th Foot in the Sutlej Campaign in 1846, and was present at the battle of Sobraon (Medal).

¹ Lord Strafford served with the 33rd in Flanders and in Holland in 1794 and 95, and was wounded at Geldermalsen. He served with the 3rd Guards in the expeditions to Hanover in 1806; to Copenhagen in 1807; and to Walcheren in 1809,—in the latter he was with the Reserve under Sir J. Hope, and commanded his advance, composed of the Grenadier Battalion of the Guards and a detachment of the 94th Rifles; in this command he charged a detachment of Dutch troops, taking some officers and upwards of a hundred prisoners. In 1811 he joined the Brigade of Guards in Portugal; and in September of that year he was nominated to the command of a Brigade, in the 2nd Division under Lord Hill. He was present with it in all the movements and affairs with the enemy in the South of Spain,—and during the period of the Siege of Ciudad Rodrigo he was detached in command to Idanha Nova with his own Brigade and some cavalry to observe the movements of a corps of the enemy commanded by Gen. Foy, at Coria. Upon Lord Hill joining the main body of the Army at the commencement of the Campaign of 1813, he was engaged in the several actions of Vittoria, of the Pyrenees, of Pampeluna, in which action he was wounded; in the crossing of the Nivelle and attack of the fortified camp,—wounded and had two horses shot under him; at Cambo, in driving the enemy's out-posts and reconnoitring the Tete-de-Pont; in the passage of the Nive and the affair before Bayonne on the 18th Dec. 1813, when the 2nd Division was attacked by six Divisions of the French Army commanded by Marshal Soult: in this action he had a horse shot under him. On the 14th Feb. at the commencement of the Campaign of 1814, he was engaged with the 3rd Guard of the enemy at Epinette; and on the following day was employed in the attack of the heights above Garris. He was in the subsequent actions of Orthes and Aire, and he repulsed the enemy at Gardin. He was also engaged with his brigade at the battle of Toulouse. He commanded a Brigade of Guards at the battle of Waterloo; and commanded the first corps of the British Army from Waterloo to Paris,—took the fortified city of Peronne on the march, and subsequently possession of Paris by occupying the heights of Belle Ville and Montmartre. His Lordship has received the gold cross and one clasp for Vittoria, Pyrenees, Nivelle, Nive and Orthes; and the silver War Medal with one clasp for Toulouse.

On the 10th Nov. following he moved off to the post of the bridge over the river Esga, and was actively employed in the defence of the post. He covered the advance of the divisions upon Mont Blain, and subsequently covered the flanks of the divisions to turn the right of the enemy, and also the advance of the division till it crowned the heights (horse killed under him); he then drove in the enemy's skirmishers, and took up a line to cover the columns till night. After the termination of the Peninsula war he embarked at Bordeaux with the 1st battalion 57th regt. for Canada; was present in all the operations on Lake Champlain, and covered the retreat from Plattsburg to Montreal. Subsequently at the siege of Flushing, he volunteered to storm the enemy's entrenchments, which he carried; and in November he was again sent to Walcheren to cover the embarkation of the troops when the island was evacuated. In 1810 he proceeded to the Mediterranean, where he served three years, and on being promoted, in 1812, to the Lieut.-Colonelcy of the 54th, he joined the army in Spain. In 1814 he accompanied the 54th to America, and commanded it at the battle of Bladensburg, where he received five severe wounds, had a horse shot under him, and was obliged to surrender himself as a prisoner of war. He has received the War Medal with one clasp for Corunna.

On the 7th October, 1813, a General Order, of which the following is an abstract, was issued by the Commander-in-Chief:—

Whereas considerable inconvenience has arisen from the number of Medals which have been issued in commemoration of the brilliant and distinguished events in which the success of His Majesty's arms has received the Royal approbation, the Prince Regent has been pleased to command that the following Regulations shall be adopted in the grant and circulation of such marks of distinction: viz.—

1st. That one Medal only shall be borne by each Officer recommended for such distinction.

2nd. That for the second and third events, which may be subsequently commemorated in like manner, each individual recommended to bear the distinction shall carry a gold Clasp attached to the ribbon to which the Medal is suspended, and inscribed with the name of the Battle or Siege to which it relates.

3rd. That upon a claim being admitted to a fourth mark of distinction, a Cross shall be borne by each officer, with the names of the four Battles or Sieges respectively inscribed thereupon; and to be worn in substitution of the distinctions previously granted to such individuals.

4th. Upon each occasion of a similar nature that may occur subsequently to the grant of a Cross, the Clasp shall again be issued to those who have a claim to the additional distinction, to be borne on the ribbon to which the Cross is suspended, in the same manner as described in No. 2 of these Regulations.

His Royal Highness was further pleased to command that the distribution of Medals or Badges for Military services of distinguished merit shall be regulated as follows: viz.—

1st. That no General or other Officer shall be considered entitled to receive them, unless he has been personally and particularly engaged upon those occasions of great importance and peculiar brilliancy, in commemoration of which such marks of distinction are to be bestowed.

2nd. That no Officer shall be considered a candidate for the Medal, or Badge, except upon the special selection and report of the Commander of the Forces upon the spot, as having merited the distinction by conspicuous services.

3rd. That the Commander of the Forces shall transmit to the Commander-in-Chief, Returns, signed by himself, specifying the names and ranks of those Officers whom he shall have selected as particularly deserving.

4th. The Commander of the Forces in making the selection will restrict his choice to the under-mentioned ranks: viz.—

General Officers.

Commanding Officers of Brigades.

Commanding Officers of Artillery, or Engineers.

Adjutant-General, and Quarter-Master-General.

Deputies of ditto, and ditto, having the rank of Field Officers.

Assistants, Adjutant and Quarter-Master-Generals, having the rank of Field Officers, and being at the head of the Staff, with a detached Corps, or distinct division of the Army.

Military Secretary, having the rank of Field Officer.

Commanding Officers of Battalions, or Corps equivalent thereto; and Officers who may have succeeded to the actual command during the engagement, in consequence of the death or removal of the original Commanding Officer.

The Crosses, Medals, and Clasps, are to be worn by the General Officers, suspended by a Ribbon of the colour of the sash, with a blue edge, round the neck; and by the Commanding Officers of Battalions, or Corps equivalent thereto; and Officers who may have succeeded to the actual command during the engagement; the Chiefs of Military Departments, and their Deputies and Assistants (having the rank of Field Officers); and such other Officers as may be specially recommended, attached by a Ribbon of the same description to the button-hole of their uniform.

Those Badges which would have been conferred upon the Officers who have fallen at or died since the Battles and Sieges, shall, as a token of respect for their memories, be transmitted to their respective families.—Vide the London Gazette, 9th October, 1813.
